

National Medical Support Notice (NMSN)

Employer Receives NMSN

Does any question on the Employer Response form apply? (At this point, you may not be able to determine whether question #4 applies).

If YES → Return Employer Response form to the child support agency within 20 business days.

If NO → Send Part B to plan administrator for enrollment.

- The plan administrator will notify you when enrollment has been completed. The plan administrator has 40 business days to respond.
- Payroll calculates withholding deductions.
- Do deductions for employee's child and medical support exceed maximum allowable (by CCPA) for withholding?

If YES → Check state law of employee's principal place of employment to determine payment priority.

If NO → Withhold full amount for child and medical support.

Does state priority require payment for medical support first?

If YES → Withhold for medical support.

If NO → Complete #4 on Employer Response form and return to the child support agency.

If enrollment cannot be completed until after a waiting period or other contingency, you must notify the plan administrator when the employee is eligible for enrollment. You should also notify the child support agency of the timeframe for enrollment.

OCSE Employer Services Website: <http://www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/css/employers>